

MISC INFO

The President and Board of Trustees of

Salve Regina College

request the pleasure of your company at a dinner

for

The 1977 Honorary Degree Recipients

Judge Florence K. Murray

Mr. Charles D. O'Connell

Admiral Stansfield Turner

Saturday, the twenty-first of May

Ochre Court

Cocktails = 7:00 p.m.

Dinner = 8:00 p.m.

Dress = formal

R.S.V.P.

Bachelor of Fine Arts degree offered in architecture, art education, mural design, ceramics, film making, graphic design, illustration, industrial design, interior architecture, landscape architecture, painting, photography, sculpture, textile design; Bachelor of Architecture (5-year program), architecture, interior architecture, industrial design; Master of Architecture; Master of Arts in Art Education; M.F.A. in industrial design, furniture design, painting, printmaking, photography, film, sculpture, ceramics, glass, jewelry; liberal arts courses supplement professional subjects; co-operative arrangement with nearby Brown University permits students to take liberal arts subjects not included in curricula; 2 Sum. Sess. term 6 wks. for transfer students with 1 year of college; 5-wk. Pre-College for high school students; institution maintains European Honors program in Rome, Italy.

[1] and [J1] ROGER WILLIAMS COLLEGE, urban campus of Professional Studies in Providence (02903) 266 Pine St., and new semi-rural waterfront campus of Liberal Arts on Narragansett Bay at Bristol (02809) Old Ferry Rd.—Co-educational, private, non-sectarian college offering two-year and four-year programs in liberal arts, business administration and engineering; emphasis on innovative, non-traditional approaches to courses in 16 major liberal arts fields; co-operative education programs offered in business administration and engineering; 2,500 men/women day division students; 800 students in evening division which offers courses on both campuses; new dormitories housing 600 students; S.A.T. ACT scores recommended but not required for applicants; rolling admission schedule; programs for transfer students at both campuses; regional accreditation: New England Assn.; chartered as a two-year college in 1956, became a four-year college in 1967.

Tuition at Providence campus $650 per semester, at Bristol campus $800 per semester; board $320 for a double room, $345 for a single, per semester; dining cafeteria-style in the dining lounge at the Bristol campus; snack bar at Providence campus; fraternities and sororities on Providence campus only; multi-use Student Center scheduled for completion in early 1974; participant in College Scholarship Service; loans, scholarships, grants, work-study funds available; 14% of all students receiving a form of aid; varsity soccer, basketball, and ice hockey offered; intramural athletics offered.

At Professional Studies campus bachelor of science degree is offered in Business Administration and in Construction Technology and Industrial Technology; Associate in Science degree is offered in Business Administration; the Associate in Engineering Technology is offered in the engineering division; co-operative programs in both the Business and Engineering divisions offer students semesters of full-time paid employment in their career fields, alternating with semesters of regular classroom study; at the Liberal Arts campus, major concentrations are organized into four flexible areas: Humanities (English, French, Philosophy), Fine Arts (Creative Writing, Art, Theater, Fine Arts), Natural Sciences (Biology, Mathematics), and Social Sciences (American Civilization, Education-elementary, History, Political Science, Psychology, Social Science, Anthropology/Sociology); co-ordinated with these are non-major offerings in languages, chemistry, physics, economics; interdisciplinary majors and independent studies designed by individual students are encouraged; university without walls concept in operation: students, under the guidance of a single tutor of their choice, plan and carry out a learning program of their own design—Independent of the campus and classroom; variety of audio-visual and auto-tutorial equipment and techniques used in course work; two five-week summer sessions each summer at both the Professional Studies and Liberal Arts campuses. 1974 2000

[1] SALVE REGINA COLLEGE, Newport (02840)—Small city residential environment; women's Roman Catholic college, conducted by Sisters of Mercy; established 1947 on large estates fronting on ocean; 751 women; lib. 10,000 vols.; fac. 1:10; CELB's S.A.T. and 3 achievement tests required for freshmen who enter only in Sept.; mean test scores V510, M481; regional accreditation: New England Assn.

Tuition $1,700; board and room $1,225; typical expenses $3,200; dormitory and dining hall; cafeteria for day students.

Courses lead to A.B. degree with majors in Humanities, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences; programs available in Elementary Education, Secondary School Teaching, and Special Education; medical technology and courses in the Division of Nursing leading to B.S. degree in four academic years; 1 Sum. Sess. term 6 wks.

[1] UNITED STATES NAVAL WAR COLLEGE, Newport (02840)—Highest educational institution in the United States Navy; founded 1884; world's first postgraduate Naval War College; students are specially selected commissioned officers of the Navy, Army, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and civilians of certain other governmental agencies; resident courses are ten months long; the curriculum is designed to further an understanding of the fundamentals of warfare, international relations and inter-service operations in order to prepare officers for higher command; has two courses for U.S. students and special ten-month Naval Command Course for senior foreign officers of free world navies.

[1] W. ALTON JONES CAMPUS, West Greenwich—See Rhode Island, University of.

SOUTH CAROLINA (SC)

[1] ALLEN UNIVERSITY, Columbia (29204)—Urban environment; co-ed., privately controlled institution; founded and supported by A.M.E. Church; chartered 1870 and later started at Cokesbury, S.C., as Payne Institute; transferred after 1880 to Columbia and present name adopted; 957 men and women.

Tuition $380; typical expenses $40 for boarding students, $560 for day students; dormitories for men and women, and cafeteria; 4 fraternities, 4 sororities; tuition scholarships for high school honor graduates; university employs some students in part-time work; NDSL, work-study programs, Economic Opportunity grants, United Students Aid Fund loans, co-op. education program.

Degrees offered are B.A. and B.S.; liberal arts and sciences emphasized, although programs are available in education and theology; 2 Sum. Sess. terms 6 wks. each.

[J1] ANDERSON COLLEGE, Anderson (29621)—Co-ed. institution controlled by Baptist Church; 13th and 14th grades of liberal arts; pre-professional and terminal programs in business education, journalism, secretarial, music, social service and teaching; freshmen admitted on certificate; dormitory and dining hall; 925 students; tuition $710; room and board $910; required insurance approximately $18; regional accreditation: Southern Assn.

[1] BAPTIST COLLEGE AT CHARLESTON, Charleston (29411)—Private, liberal arts and teacher training institution; co-ed.; established 1960; 2,000 students; lib. 60,000 vols.; fac. 1:19; freshmen and other students admitted at the beginning of any term (semester, inter-term or summer session); either CEEB or ACT required and graduation from an accredited high school or for students over 20 with the GED used in place of high school diploma; S.A.T. composite 800, ACT composite 18; regional accreditation: Southern Assn.

Tuition $633 per semester; board and room $520 per semester; scholarships (academic) available; athletic scholarships available; school also participates in funds EOG, college work-study, government guaranteed loans, etc.; intercollegiate athletics.

College offers the B.A. and B.S. degrees; also offers an Associate in Nursing Education degree (2 years); students may finish in 3 years; credit offered through CLEP (up to 30 hours); other courses may be challenged by examination; month of January is spent in individual study in the inter-term (where 4 hours in credit may be earned); college also has pre-college program for applicants who might not otherwise attend college; 2 Sum. Sess., 5 wks. each.

[1] BENEDICT COLLEGE, Columbia (29204)—Urban environment; co-ed., private institution, a Baptist Church related college; founded 1870 as Benedict Institute; present name adopted 1890; 1,500 students; lib. 59,338 vols.; regional accreditation: Southern Assn.

Tuition and fees $1,100; room and board $800; approximate cost per year for boarding student $1,900; dormitories for women, a new 12-story co-ed. dormitory; most students earn all or part way.

Divisions are Liberal Arts; degrees offered are B.A. and B.S.; 2 Sum. Sess. terms totaling 10 wks.

[J1] BERKELEY-CHARLESTON-DORCHESTER TECHNICAL EDUCATION CENTER, North Charleston (29405) 7000 Rivers Ave.—Enrollment 850; public, county and state; 13th and 14th year terminal programs; co-ed.; offers associate degree; regional accreditation: Southern Assn.

[2] BOB JONES UNIVERSITY, Greenville (29614)—Urban environment; co-ed., privately controlled institution; organized 1927; located until 1947 at Cleveland, Tenn., and known as Bob Jones College; present name adopted 1947 when moved to Greenville; emphasizes the authority of the Scriptures as the Inspired Word of God and stresses Christian training; students admitted Sept., Jan. and June.

Tuition $350 per semester; room and board $540 per semester; matriculation fee $50 per semester; total expenses $1,880 per year; work scholarships available; no fraternities or sororities.

University divided into five schools, offering programs of study leading to degrees as follows: B.A., B.S. in Arts and Science; B.A., B.D., M.A., Ph.D. in Religion; B.A., B.S., M.A., M.F.A. in Fine Arts; B.S. and M.S. in Education; B.S. in Business Administration; Department of Cinema, known as Unusual Films, both produces films and offers training in cinema; all students required to take course in Bible each semester; instruction in music, speech and art offered without additional cost above tuition, giving special attention to religion and the fine arts; Academy, including grades 7 through 12, is also operated; Elementary School includes grades K-6; Institute of Christian Service also offers a non-academic program; 1 Sum. Sess. term 5 wks.; 1 post-Sum. Sess. term 3 wks.

[2] CARDINAL NEWMAN ORATORIAN COLLEGE, Rock Hill (29730) P.O. Box 895—Men's Catholic four-year institution.

[2] CENTRAL WESLEYAN COLLEGE, Central (29630)—Co-ed. college controlled by Wesleyan Church of America; senior liberal arts; majors in History, English, biology, psychology, Bible, education, math, chemistry, physical education, counseling, theology and business administration; lib. 18,000 vols.; 256 students; scholarships to ministerial students, children of ministers, students in top 10% of graduating class and foreign students; dormitories for men and women; annual cost for tuition fees, room and board $1,350; NDSL and other forms of financial assistance available.

[1] CHARLESTON COLLEGE OF, Charleston (29401)—Urban downtown environment; co-ed., privately controlled non-sectarian institution founded 1770; chartered 1785, began municipal institution 1837; returned to private control 1949; was first municipal college in U.S.; women admitted 1918; 234 men, 184 women; admissions Sept., mid-year and summer; CEEB's S.A.T. and Achievement Tests in Math. (Level I) and Eng. required; lib. 41,000 vols.; fac. 1:14; app. AAUW; regional accreditation: Southern Assn.

Tuition $1,000; student activities fee of $50; dormitories for 64 men and 35 women; $250 per year; board $495 per year; typical expenses $1,000 for majority of students who commute; $1,800 for boarding students; 3 fraternities, 3 sororities; members do not live in houses; loans under both NDSL and USAF available; about 12% of students work to earn part of expenses.

Degrees offered are B.A. and B.S. in Liberal Arts; B.S. with Medicine, a specialized B.S. for students completing 3 years at College of Charleston and

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Commencement - 1977

Honorary Degree Recipient

The Honorable Florence K. Murray
Rhode Island Superior Court Justice.

Mr. Charles D. O'Connell
Vice President and Dean of Students
The University of Chicago

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Escort

Sister Mary Rosalia Flaherty
Former Dean and Trustee of
Salve Regina College

The Reverend Rollins E. Lambert
United States Catholic Conference
Trustee, Salve Regina College

Dr. I. George Schaffer
Trustee, Salve Regina College